Hugh Porter's Revolutionary War Pension File S.40289

Below are extracts of affidavits from the Revolutionary War Pension File of Hugh Porter of Guernsey County, Ohio. The copies of the remaining documents in the file are found on the following pages (14-90 through 14-94).

State of Ohio, Harrison County. 11 August 1818. Personally appeared before Archibald McGrew, Justice of the Peace, Robert Porter and on his solemn oath deposeth and saith that Hugh Porter was inlisted in 1776 and served three years and to the best of said deponent's knowledge was honorably discharged.

Before Alexander Henderson, associate Judge and Wm. Tingley, Clerk of the Court
Robert Porter

Judge Henderson did not sign the affidavit until 15 July 1819.

To the Honorable Benjamin Tappin, Esq., President of the Court of Common Pleas of Guernsey County [OH] and his associate Judges: We the undersigned do certify that we are all well acquainted with the bearer, Hugh Porter (a Revolutionary soldier) and we know him to be a man of good moral character and of steady habits. We also certify that he possesses neither lands nor living for his support and that his aged consort has been deprived of sight these many years. In our opinion, the said Hugh Porter is justly entitled to a share of that support that Congress has wisely appropriated for the relief of the war torn soldier.
