JOHN H. MCCLEARY DIES
AT HOME AT IRON GATES

John Howard McCleary, 75 years old, died at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, Twentieth street and Iron Gates road. He had been ill five weeks.

Mr. McCleary was born in Grandview, Ia., and had lived in Joplin and the district the last 53 years. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church. At one time he operated a cafe at Eighteenth and Main streets.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jennie McCleary, of the home; two daughters, Mrs. L. A. Phillips, Twenty-eighth street and Iron Gates road, and Mrs. N. V. Meredith of Tulsa, Okla.; two sons, D. R. McCleary of Atlanta, Ga., and A. J. McCleary of the home; six sisters, Mrs. Ida Edmondson of Columbus Junction, Ia., Mrs. Victoria Carpenter of La Cygne, Kan., Mrs. Bertha Martin of Miami, Okla., Mrs. Jim Holt of Spavinaw, Okla., Mrs. Lulu Davis of Plainview, Tex., and Mrs. Pearl Skye of Pecora, Okla.; two brothers, Jeff McCleary of Miami and Grover McCleary, who lives in Canada; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Hurlbut Undertaking Company will direct funeral announcements.
Restaurant and Bar of John H. McCleary, Main at 20th Street, Joplin, Missouri, circa 1934.
(behind the counter John McCleary, others unknown)