The requisition, made by the council, July 31, 1777, for wagons, provided for 600 from Lancaster county.

In 1778, the assessment made and collected, of grain and forage for the army, footed up 658 bushels of wheat and 651 bushels of forage.

On August 1, 1780, the county was required to furnish 1,200 barrels of flour, monthly, 5,000 bushels of forage, 50 wagons, 400 horses, and 600 men.

A partial list of those providing horses, in compliance with this demand, mentions the names of:

Benjamin Landis, Henry Landis, Christian Myer, Samuel Myer, Jacob Kaufman, Henry Brubaker, Jacob Peifer, John Kneisly, Jacob Kortz, Daniel Ruty, George Bugh, Martin Myer, Christian Brubaker, Jacob Myer, Abram Myer, Michael Shenck, Isaac Long, John Master, Henry Lenn, Philip Boyer, Jacob Frick, John Frick, John Leib, Jacob Rickseker, Benjamin Hershey, Christian Binckly, Abram Hershey, Valentine Metzler, Peter Grobill, George Huber, Abram Stoner, Peter Boughman, Martin Weibrecht, Jacob Grub, Michael Rudysyl, Melcor Snyder, Jacob Frick, Sebastian Graff, Andrew Billmyer, Peter Swan.

Among those furnishing wagons were the following:

Washington's Storehouse and Supply Depot. 477

Michael Shriner, John Brubaker, Jacob Bare, John Myer, Abram Leib, Jacob Weidler, Peter Boughman, Christian Myer, Jacob Wilhelm.

Martic Furnace was built in 1751-1752, by Thomas Smith and his brother William, upon Furnace Run, in what is now Providence township, on the road leading from Lancaster to Burkholder's Ferry, upon the Susquehanna.

At the same time they also built Martic Forge, located on Pequea creek, about four miles below the furnace, whence they obtained their pig iron.

On December 8, 1777, Michael Hillegas secured a fourth interest in the forge property, and, during 1778, its owners became Michael Hillegas, Matthias Slough and George Ege.

The furnace went out of blast during the Revolutionary War, and was never again blown in.

The Windsor Forges were located on the eastern branch of the Conestoga creek, in Caernarvon township, about a mile south of Churchtown. They were built, about 1742, by William Branson, of Philadelphia. Like the Warwick Furnace, of Chester county, the property passed to his grandchildren, among whom were the five children of his daughter who married Dr. Bernard Van Leer. They were its owners during the Revolutionary period.

The Pool Forge was built by James Old, who returned from Reading to Caernarvon township in 1779. It stood about two miles west from Churchtown. He also built another forge, a mile farther down the creek.

Prior to the Revolution, Michael Withers built a forge on Octorara creek, Sadsbury township, between Christiana and Steeleville. Of this practically nothing remains.
